

Dr. Sophia Bryan

Dr. Sophia Bryan has experience in government administration, leadership, and academic research. A highly trained administrator, Dr. Bryan started her career at the City of Miramar in 2007. During her tenure at the City of Miramar, she was instrumental in launching the City's first revenue generating Comprehensive Assessment of Revenues and Expenditures ("C.A.R.E") Program in 2018. Since the launch of C.A.R.E, she worked on several multi-million-dollar projects for the City of Miramar including billboards, and the Guaranteed Energy, Water and Wastewater Performance Savings Contracting Services.

In 2016 she graduated from Nova Southeastern University, Abraham S. Fischler School of Education with a Doctoral Degree in Organizational Leadership and Higher Education Leadership. She serves on the Board of Directors for the not-for-profit organization Economic Development with on-Going community Engagement (E.D.G.E) as Vice-Secretary.

Memberships:

ICMA – International City/County Management Association

NAACP – National Association for the Advancement of Colored People

JWOF - Jamaican Women of Florida Organization