

Biography

Attorney Jasmine Joseph

Jasmine Joseph is a graduate of St. Thomas University Benjamin L. Crump College of Law, where she earned her Juris Doctor, cum laude. She successfully passed the Florida Bar July 2024, marking a significant milestone in her legal career. During her time in law school, Jasmine was actively involved in various organizations, including the Student Bar Association, St. Thomas Law Review, and the St. Thomas Trial Team. She also contributed her leadership skills to the Haitian American Student Bar Association, the Caribbean Law Student Association, and the Florida Association of Women Lawyers.

Currently, Jasmine Joseph specializes in Workers' Compensation, Employment Law, and Civil Litigation. She is also a member of the Haitian Lawyers Association. She is excited to continue to grow within her field and serve her community.